Introduction. Collaborative Action Research (CAR) is a core element for working to improve educational and public services and is a core component of a model for improvement for Scotland ' s Public Services. Sometimes the term ' Collaborative Enquiry ' is also used. It uses focused systematic practitioner research to critically examine current arrangements, make changes based on evidence, monitor the impact of these changes and refine and adapt them as appropriate.

Collaborative Action Research (CAR) - Education Scotland

The primary reason for engaging in action research is to assist the " actor " in improving and/or refining his or her actions. Practitioners who engage in action research inevitably find it to be an empowering experience. Action research has this positive effect for many reasons.
