' The Second Coming ' by WB Yeats would readily recommend itself to any list of landmark 20th C poetry. The poem was written in 1919 in the aftermath of First World War and beginning of the Irish War of Independence that followed the Easter Rising, at a time before the British decided to send in the Black and Tans to Ireland.

The Penguin Anthology Of Twentieth Century American Poetry ...

Modernist poetry in English started in the early years of the 20th century with the appearance of the Imagists. In common with many other modernists, these poets wrote in reaction to the perceived excesses of Victorian poetry, with its emphasis on traditional formalism and ornate diction. In many respects, their criticism echoes what William Wordsworth wrote in Preface to Lyrical Ballads to instigate the Romantic movement in British poetry over a century earlier, criticising the gauche and pompo
