A big part of the jury service experience is waiting, and potentially quite a lot of it. There will be a dedicated room at the court for jury members only, known as a Jury Pool Room. It's a little bit like an airport waiting lounge, or a slightly dressed up doctors waiting area, but it serves its purpose.

The function of the jury is to weigh up the evidence and to decide what the true facts of the case are or what actually happened. The judge gives the direction to the jury on the relevant law, which the jury has to apply to the facts of the case in order to reach a verdict.
