George Herbert – Love

III | Genius

George Herbert used
this bible verse in his poem as a basis to establish the idea that

God is love. Herbert, in the poem published in

1633 “Love III,”

presents the concept of God’s love for all

mankind, and His grace

to those who accept Him. The poem in whole represents man's relationship with God, however George

Herbert focuses on the general theme which is God being love

encompassing His unsurpassing grace.

‘The Flower’ by

George Herbert is a

seven stanza poem

which is separated into sets of seven lines, of septets. The poet has chosen to craft this piece with a structured and consistent rhyme scheme of ababccb. This pattern repeats in each stanza, varying with

Herbert’s choice of end rhymes.. A reader
